Denny the Raccoon

Meet Denny the Raccoon. When ordinary raccoons like to stay around where they live, Denny the Raccoon is a big fan of exploring new things and places. And when other raccoons live in burrows or in tree hollows, Denny enjoys open spaces and the sound of the ocean. They say that Denny's greatgreat grandfather was the first raccoon sea captain in the world. May be that is why Denny is always looking forward to going to a river, a lake or a sea. Anywhere where there is water and the sound of the waves hitting the shore. Denny is not afraid of water. Knowing how dangerous it can be, he respects it and is very careful when he is out there. He is already good at handling his little boat with a sail and enjoys taking his friends out on it, wearing his long sleeved sailor shirt. There will surely be a day when he invites you to go. Will you come?

Cookie the Dog

Meet Cookie the Aviator. When Cookie was little, he decided to learn how to fly a plane. He wanted to help everyone in need and explore the world along the way. He studied real hard and one day became a pilot. That day was the happiest day in Cookie's life. His grandfather was very proud and gave Cookie his leather jacket as a gift. And now, Cookie flies over the Green Forest and looks for fires. He always wears the leather jacket and a helmet with glasses. All the animals know that Cookie can see everything from the sky and will be wherever there is a need for help.

Buddy the Cat

Meet Buddy the Pirate Cat. Buddy's grandfather was a real sea cat who spent most of his life on a boat, traveling and seeing exotic places. Buddy doesn't remember his grandfather very well, but he remembers the exciting stories about his adventure. He also got his grandfather's pirate bandana that he likes to wear along with a real sailor striped shirt. Buddy's dream is to sail the sea and discovery new islands, preferably with treasure. If he finds any, he will do something nice for his friends because a real friendship is worth more than all the gold in the world.

Prickle the Hedgehog

Meet Prickle the Hedgehog. Anyone who knows Prickle will tell you that he is the smartest hedgehog around. It is not because he wears a pair of round glasses, but because he likes to read about everything because the world is such an amazing place. For Prickle, the best way to spend Sunday is to get comfortable with a thick book and some juicy apples. Friends do not bother him when he reads because they know, when he is finished, he will tell them tons of exciting stories.
